SaM Solutions among nominees of "The 2011 Global Outsourcing 100" rating

SaM Solutions, one of the leading software development companies on the Belarusian market, was nominated for several prestigious awards of "The 2011 Global Outsourcing 100®", an annual rating published by the International Association of Outsourcing Professionals® (IAOP®) association.

"The Global Outsourcing 100" is a comprehensive rating assessing the leading global outsourcing companies working in traditional and innovative software development areas, including real estate, capital management, manufacturing and logistics. An independent jury evaluated each company by several criteria, including company size and growth rate, customer feedback, competencies, organizational structure and management efficiency. "The Global Outsourcing 100" rating and additional lists of vendors associated with it are a reliable source of candidates for companies seeking high-quality outsourcing vendors and consultants.

This year, SaM Solutions was called one of the 20 fastest-developing companies in the Hardware and Software category and was also nominated in several other categories, such as Top20 growing IT companies, Top5 growing companies on the Russian market and Top20 growing companies working on the West European market.
